NINE PARTNERS AT LEVENE, NEALE, BENDER, YOO & BRILL LISTED ON PRESTIGIOUS 2011 SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA “SUPER LAWYERS”

(LOS ANGELES) – Nine partners at Levene, Neale, Bender, Yoo & Brill, L.L.P. (LNBYB), the Los Angeles-based bankruptcy law and reorganization specialist, have been selected to the prestigious 2011 listing of Southern California “Super Lawyers,” a highly regarded compilation of the region’s elite attorneys.

Founded in 1995, with offices in Century City and downtown Los Angeles, LNBYB focuses exclusively on all areas of bankruptcy, business reorganization, trustee issues and litigation. It has earned a national reputation as a premier firm that has successfully helped clients meet complex financial challenges.

Selected to the 2011 Super Lawyers listing are:

David L. Neale and Ron Bender, founders and co-managing partners of Levene, Neale, Bender, Yoo & Brill; founding partner David W. Levene; name partners Martin J. Brill and Timothy J. Woo; and partners David B. Golubchik, Daniel H. Reiss, Edward M. Wolkowitz, and Beth Ann R. Young. All have been listed numerous times since the inception of the “Super Lawyers” listing.

Each attorney is selected by a blue ribbon panel of peers from the bankruptcy practice area after a region-wide nomination process and independent research. Only five percent of the attorneys practicing in Southern California are named to the “Super Lawyers” list.

“We feel that the most recent selection of our partners to the listing is further affirmation of the respect and esteem our work has generated for the past decade amongst colleagues in the bankruptcy practice area throughout Southern California,” said David L. Neale and Ron Bender.
